Cookie policy

At FinX, we are committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring that your personal information is collected and processed in compliance with applicable data protection laws, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). As part of our efforts to safeguard your privacy, we use cookies on our website.

What are Cookies?

A cookie is a small text file that is placed on your device when you visit our website. Cookies enable us to collect information about your device, your browsing activities, and your preferences, and to remember you when you return to our website.

Types of Cookies We Use

We use the following types of cookies on our website:

Necessary Cookies: These cookies are essential for the functioning of our website and cannot be disabled. They allow you to browse our website and use its features, such as accessing your account and purchasing our courses.

Performance and Analytics Cookies: These cookies help us understand how visitors use our website, which pages are most popular, and how often visitors return. This information is used to improve our website and to make it more user-friendly.

Advertising Cookies: These cookies are used to deliver targeted advertising to you based on your browsing habits and interests. They may be used by third-party advertisers to display ads relevant to you.

Functionality Cookies: These cookies allow us to remember your preferences and settings, such as your preferred language and currency, and to personalise your browsing experience.

How to Manage Cookies

You can manage cookies through the settings of your web browser. Most browsers allow you to block or delete cookies, or to receive a notification before a cookie is placed on your device. However, please note that if you disable cookies, you may not be able to use some features of our website.

Updates to Our Cookie Policy

We may update our Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices and to comply with legal requirements. We encourage you to review this policy regularly to stay informed about how we use cookies.
